Sir,

I shall be privileged if you could, please, allow me an interview with you to discuss the possibility of my joining my husband, Robert Mangano, to take during my forthcoming leave. He is detained on Robben Island.

I realise that you are very busy and that an interview may not be possible. If this is so, I shall be extremely happy to have your written permission allowing me to stay on Robben Island for the period of my leave.

My leave starts on the 22nd November, 1963 and is for a period of 28 days.

Thanking you for my application and assuring you of my appreciation,
Yours faithfully,
