

12th November, 1975.

Dearest Bob,

Apologies for the delay in writing. It's been a hectic few days here -- as always.

As I told you on the phone, Randolph writes: "I am told Bob simply can't lose if he sues the publishers here." That's good news indeed! He suggests that perhaps you would want to sue for about £15000, and adds that he could arrange the financial backing to get the case started in London.

If you are happy about all this, Randolph asks that you write a letter to Henry Brown Esq., Courts & Co., Wimpole Street, London W1, asking him (Mr Brown) to act for you in the matter. It would obviously be a good idea to sketch out what you want him to do. The letter to Brown must be sent to Randolph, who will make the arrangements.

For once we seem to be on the side of the angels.

Fondest good wishes to you.

Yours,
