My dear Benjamin,

Believe it or not I found my file for Bob's application. Shanti's fees were paid from a English source & this helped considerably towards payment for Senior Council in the appeal. Bob's fees & documents were paid for by the Lawyer's Committee for Civil Rights under Law in Washington ($2500). They were very supportive of the litigation but their funds were limited & this was all they could provide.

Incidentally as we had to renew the applications for the depository permits on several occasions during the proceedings (as they were only valid for limited periods) I have a signed but never used application form. Quite a collector's piece! Also I have the photos he submitted with the application.

Hope you are all well. Thanks to you & mine for caring for Pat on his return. Regards
Randy
