My dear Bob,

Your letter, cable, and finally your cheque have all been safely received. And once again I am deeply indebted to you for your generosity. The best way in which I can express my thanks is to let you have copies of the latest batch of letters from Bob. As you will see from the letters, his stature grows in adversity. Whatever the depth of his troubles, he is always more concerned with the problems of those outside.

My deepest and sincerest gratitude to you,

Yours sincerely,
