

JOHANNESBURG.

3rd November, 1965.

Dear Mrs Sobukwe,

I have pleasure in enclosing herewith R16.00 to pay for bringing the children home from school. As always, it comes with all good wishes.

Mrs Eulalie Stott has replied to the letter I wrote to her and she says that she will be delighted to help you in any way possible when you visit Cape Town. She is trying to get you permission to visit Bob every day ~~while~~ while you are there and to have lunches with him, but so far she has not succeeded in this.

Mrs Stott asks that you contact her as soon as you reach Cape Town so that she can give her you any help you may need. Her address is: "Lunssdale", 6; Bishopscourt Road, Newlands, Cape Town; telephone: 77.3368.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,
