Dear Benjamin:

I was delighted to have your letter of March 23 and also the word which the Taylors brought back. It meant a great deal to them to see you and the editor.

I am very much interested, of course, in everything that you have written about your future plans and will not comment upon them here. I'm delighted to enclose a letter which I hope will be of use to you.

I have recently taken a decision which greatly affects my plans. The National Council of Churches in the U.S.A. has recently decided to greatly expand and upgrade its program on international affairs and peace, and has asked me to become Director of the effort. It is early to be leaving the church here, but the new proposal of the National Council is such a challenging one that I could not but accept. I will be on the job full-time after June 30. I hope very much that we will keep in as close touch as possible.

With best greetings,

Sincerely,

Robert S. Bilheimer
