Dear Miliewe,

Your Tata wrote to me and asked me to see you so that we could make arrangements for your Mother's birthday next week. I went to your house yesterday, and was very sorry to learn from your Mother that you had already returned to school.

I have now sent some money to the Sister-in-Charge of St. Mary's Hostel, and have asked her to let you and Dedani and Dalindyabo have regular amounts for pocket-money in case there is anything you want to buy. Will you also please make sure that Dini receives pocket-money? I will leave it to you to make sure that he does not go short.

I will see your Mother again next week, on her birthday, and I will deliver to her a present of a tea service from your Tata and from the children. I will also be giving her a handbag, I think, as a present from me.

If you want to send your Mother a telegram congratulating her on her birthday, or even perhaps a small gift, will you ask the Sister-in-Charge to let you have some of the money which I have sent?

And if at any time you or the other children need anything, will you write to me straight away and let me know?

Your Mother told me that you are doing very well at school this year and I was pleased to learn this. Please give my very best wishes to the other children.

Sincerely,
