Dear Benjie,

This is merely intended to inform you that the books from Lincoln University have arrived. There were ten in all and these are the titles:-

1. An Economic Interpretation of the history of the U.S.A. by Charles Beard.
2. Nationalized Industry and Public Ownership - Robson.
3. A history of American Economic Life - Kirkland.
4. The Civil War and Reconstruction - R. Donald.
5. The Turner Thesis - Role of the Frontier in American history.
6. The Wealth of Nations Vols I and II - Adam Smith.
7. The Great Experiment - Thistlethwaite.
8. The Frontier in American History - J.F. Turner.
9. The Structure of Competitive Industry - Robinson.

The ones I need desperately are Sabine's on Political Theory and Grant and Temperleys on International history. As you will recall theirs are the sole textbooks in their respective subjects. The notes are based almost exclusively on them.

I have just received a letter from Miliswa in which she informs me that their schools re-open on the 18th July. I realize then that our plans for bouquets by the children will have to be dropped. I hope she received my letter before she left so that she should know, at least, that we had intended her to play an important part in the festivities.

Benjie, I realise that I have never thanked you for renewing my "Readers Digest" subscription. I do so now. We tend to take the kindness and sacrifices of our friends for granted.

I hope you have recovered completely and are up and about.

Love to Jenny

With best wishes

BOB

P.S. I have written to Lincoln University, but will appreciate it if you could do the same, listing the books - Bob.
