JOHANNESBURG.

29th July, 1966.

My dear Eulalie,

I hope you will not mind my again asking for your assistance in regard to Bob Sobukwe.

Mrs Sobukwe is taking off a week from work early in September so as to visit Bob. She will be arriving in Cape Town by train at 2 pm on Monday, September 5, and will be staying until either the evening of Friday, September 9, or Saturday, September 10. She would like to stay at the Tafelberg Hotel, and I wonder whether you could make the booking for her? Recalling past experiences, I have asked her if she is certain that she will in fact stay at the hotel, and she assures me that she is certain.

Also, is it possible to let me know the cost of the accommodation at the hotel so that I can give the money to Mrs Sobukwe. I don't suppose there is any chance of finding some kind soul down there who would be willing to take over the account? This, I hasten to add, is merely a passing thought, because my purpose is not chiefly to ask you to wring the money from someone, but to fix up the booking.

I have been wanting to write to you for many months now to ask whether it was possible to arrange for that chair for Bob which we discussed when I was in Cape Town early in the year.

I hope you are keeping well.

Sincerely,

BENJAMIN POGRUND
