

JOHANNESBURG.

20th February, 1967.

My dear Mrs Sobukwe,

I returned from Cape Town last night -- I was there for ten days -- to find your letter waiting for me. I would also very much like to see you and wonder whether you could telephone me so that we could arrange to meet? The best time is to phone me first thing in the morning at my flat (44,9030).

My application to see Bob was, I am afraid, refused by the Magistrate in Cape Town. Mrs Suzman saw him, however, and reports that he is keeping well.

I look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,
