Dear Benjamin

Replied
7/8/09

I was glad to hear from you but I feel heavy & sad with the news in it - I have written just a note to Bob - no mention as you advised - but I repeat, it's so awful! I am thankful you're seeing to the help for him that you are - I'm enclosing a check. I've tried to think of others who might help - Dr Bea & Claire Sische are living here and have friends & family who may - I did approach them. We'll see. She told me today of a friend of mine, Dr. Harry Gove, from the Univ. of Rochester, who will be coming soon to visit in S.A.

He may look you up - I don't know how - but she says he's an extremely bright, concerned person.

Lisa Handi' was trying to get books for Bob - & the children - from Harley School, where she has been this year, but the news of his release sort of dampened the spirits of the school's over now - I'll keep the children in mind for the future, though.

I wonder how your trial is going!
(My best to Mr. Gaudin also)
Most sincerely, Charlotte
