

St Agnes high school,
P. O. Box 44,
Jeyateyaneng, Lesotho.

3rd May, 71.

Tata Berjis + Anne,

Thank you very much for the sum of R3.00 which I received on the 30th of April. I did give the sum of a rand to Balindobo, he thanked very much and promises to write soon.

I am always praying God that we would be successful in our plan to U.S.A. Oh! I can be so happy Tata Berjis, I am just imagining what it would look like.

By the way, do you know what subjects we are doing? If not, let me tell you which they are. We are doing English, Mathematics, Sesotho, History Geography, Science, Latin and French. French is taught by a lady from Island. We always have our sports days on Tuesday, Thursday and on Saturday. We play net-ball, soft-ball, and other games but I prefer tennis most and I am a tennis player, I enjoy it very much. I started it last year and I have improved a lot. Bali is a soft-ball player.

Tata Benjie by the way, what class is Jenny doing?
It is cold here, what about there.
We are about to write our June test,
I and we hope to do best. I'll write more next time, I'll have to sleep now. Bye-bye Tata Benjie and Sis Anne.

I remain,
yours,
Milibwa.
