

These were written and
Mrs. Caley, 25/4/21.

1) Robert was in no
state at the time to write a very sensible article.
He seemed to have had nothing. Mrs. Caley came back very upset about it whole story.

2) He did, as an amateur write a story for the Post Deaf Advocate. He was the first price. It was about £5.
I think it a deaf man's story.
It was after to English a
Spitbar, to be made in English.
We were very proud.

PUBLISHER:

Publisher:- Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand

Location:- Johannesburg

©2010

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

DOCUMENT DETAILS:

Document ID:- A2618-CI4-3

Document Title:- Notes: Phone conversation with Mrs Caley (original, handwritten in pencil)