

R500 for Sobukwe from Britain

LONDON.—Canon John Collins, Precentor of St. Paul's and chairman of "Christian Action," yesterday sent a cable to the Minister of Justice, Mr. B. J. Vorster, appealing for the release of Mr. Robert Sobukwe, leader of the banned Pan-Africanist Congress.

He also sent a cable to Mr. Sobukwe saying: "Christian Action sends you best wishes and hopes that on expiry of your sentence you will be set free. We have cabled £250 (R500) to be used for you and your dependants or any welfare, defence and aid you wish."

Canon Collins's cable to Mr. Vorster read: "We beg you to allow Mr. R. Sobukwe his freedom. Any arbitrary detention of Mr. Sobukwe after the conclusion of his imprisonment must outrage the civilised world and bring contempt upon the South African Government."—SAPA.
