MR ROBERT Sobukwe, the banned former leader of the Pan African Congress, last night flew back to Kimberley after two months' treatment at Cape Town's Groote Schuur Hospital.

Mr Sobukwe, who is confined to Kimberley, was admitted to Groote Schuur on September 11 and underwent a chest operation. He was discharged on October 14 and immediately ordered by the Security Police to return to Kimberley.

He was, however, given permission to recuperate in Cape Town for two weeks, but was readmitted to hospital on October 31 for a further two weeks' treatment.
