

Anti-Red rival for A.N.C.

Special Correspondent

JOHANNESBURG. — The African National Congress' new rival, the Pan Africanist Congress, formed here yesterday, rejects any alignment with Communists.

The President, Mr. Robert Sobukwe, has said the movement will support neither East nor the West.

Mr. Sobukwe, who was elected unanimously, is a lecturer in Bantu languages at Witwatersrand University.

The new congress rejects the Government's Bantustan plans and aims to "unite the African people on the basis of African nationalism".

Human rights

It has accepted the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights.

The movement aims at a target of 100,000 members by July 31, which will be celebrated as "African Heroes' Day."

The congress flag will be green with a superimposed black map of Africa and a gold star. The anthem is the same as that of the A.N.C.—"God Bless Africa."

Nearly 300 Africans from all parts of the Union attended the three-day conference in Orlando called by the group which broke away from the A.N.C. in November, 1958.

Among the delegates from Durban was Mr. Jordan Ngubane, a journalist and leader of the Liberal Party.

PUBLISHER:

Publisher:- Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand

Location:- Johannesburg

©2010

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

DOCUMENT DETAILS:

Document ID:- A2618-Cp2-4-7

Document Title:- P.E. Evening Post: Anti-Red rival for the A.N.C.

Author:- Evening Post, Port Elizabeth

Document Date:- 7 April 1959