Johanna Burg
3rd December, 1964.

Dear Mrs. Bergman,

Thank you very much for your letter which I received to day.

I have tried twice to contact you by phone but there were no reply from that end.

If I had known that you had gone to Loveland, I would have asked you to ask anybody to bring my kids as far as the border. I am having some difficulty in bringing them over as they have refused to wear my passport.

I would be very pleased if you give me the money intended for the trip to Cape Town now.

I want to use it as gently for my Christmas shopping. When for my trip I shall use my December pay. Or some body

Some to get how much money I would need for my holiday - " I shall have it all done immediately, I have paid my acc - . My trip to Zaire cost quite a lot of money for my friend. Anyway, I don't need because I'll use those
- for my holiday. As I do not have any on the 24th December, I have to pay for this month and January as well, some thing I'll take I want I have also need $18 or for Bob's transportation fee I shall be very grateful, if they can give me a sum of 1000 or

I remain,
Yours sincerely,
Veronica Lubwa
