Dear,

I am now at the Mijlota Prison, as the address above indicates. I am quite well and would ask you not to be anxious about my health.

The distance from Johannesburg is much greater than it was for a long time and you might find transport costs prohibitive. Don't strain your resources.

We are allowed to read & improve books and I shall be glad if you will collect two books from Uncle which I left at his place.

We are in your country once more and for that I am thankful. We can all face up to the distance.

Give my love to the kids, particularly Emily & Joshua, the best of love to all & give my warmest regards when you reply. How time is flying at School.

Cherish
your loving husband,
Margaret.
