Re: Your article on Mangaliso Sobukwe March 1972

Dear Mr. Progrund,

I am former Managing Editor of the defunct OUR AFRICA which you may remember in the early sixties. I am writing ~~to you~~ something on Mangaliso Sobukwe.

I came across your article in which you wrote about the last months of his as a sick person. I want to use this article. I am seeking your permission or that of the Rand Daily Mail. I will acknowledge the source and give full credit. I do not want to paraphrase what you have written or try and say it in my own words as I think it would lose its impact. Also for posterity it is important to record that in that system there were a few white people who disapproved of the way Sobukwe was treated. You are one of them.

Trusting to hear from you as soon as possible,

Yours sincerely

S.M.M. Phoko
