

DOMESTIC WKRS PERCEPTION O THMSELVES.

Many blk wmn seem to hve a sense o personal superiority to men, bt a structural inferiority.

We are the same, t problm is tt we are wmn. Otherwise I hve more power thr husbnd. Once he gets into diffiucities at home he gives up. Anything diffi...he thinks its t end o t world.

We are more capable than men. Men cant face problms. They think its t end o t world.

We are equal, bt my husbnd couldnt manage things without me.

We are far bettr than men, bt we hve to respect thm so we dont lower their dugnity.

Every wmn knws we are strongr thn men. I dont knw about white wmn, if they think t same.

We are more than them.

Men's dignity hs gone into a bottle o wine.

Our girls are stroingr than men these days.

We are stronger than men, but we have to respect them although they dont deserve that respect.

men are just rubbish.

We are stroonger; we stand things our husbands could never stand.

We work hard like men, but we are paid less.

Our men treat us badly. Our marriages end like paper fires.

Our men beat us when they are drunk.

They can take othr girl friends, evn if they are married. We cant do that.

I am coping wth 9 childrn. My husbnd doesnt pay a cent.

I have been a slave all my life

(The image most used by domestic wkrs to describe their situation was tt o slves: amamhoboka.)

We are slaves.

We are slaves in our own country.
