Moscow 2/1/25. A Happy New Year

Dearest Mami.

I wrote you from Leningrad saying that the letter was the last before I return, but when I returned to Moscow the day before yesterday, I found, that you had sent me a Christmas box and my cap, which I needed so much though I borrowed a big Russian fur hat, as it was impossible to wear my London hat.

Your letter I also received, by which I see, that you were not altogether in mood when you wrote it, the old story, little annoyances, quarrels, grumbles, and friendly fights. Well I shall soon be with you and will have to take part in them. I wish I could take you here and stay here altogether. I should feel much, very much happier, though living perhaps in 2. rooms, and foregoing a good many comforts. However we shall see.

 Now, I am leaving here the day after to morrow, that is on Sunday and will probably be in London on Saturday next or Sunday, it depends very much how soon I can get the necessary Vizas, I am not going to write you any thing now and all I have to say will be left until I come back.

Hope you had a very happy time and hope we shall all have a very happy new year

Heaps of love
 . . . Yours as ever
 Sam

Vera a Happy new year!

Hope you had a good time and enjoy yourself. Did you go to see a show?

I have very little to say just now, as I am already preparing to come back.

It is lovely here, the snow is simply lovely, the people all look healthy.

By, By, Love Papa.

A Happy New Year to "Nadya" (Hilda).

Thank you for your nice, long, sensible, and kind letter, together with your Report.
I think you have done well and I am sure you will continue to do well, until you finish.

A little later you will come here and you will feel happy I am sure, there are so many children here like you, and <sup>they</sup> are very happy all of them.

What fun there is here on the snow, sledges running about in the streets, and many children going about with little sledges, and pushing each other.

It is very cold but nice, more when I come back

XXXXXXXXX Love papa

Dear Olga

A Happy new Year to you.

As You said little one so I will say good bye
