Dear Mammie.

I have sent you today £10- by transfer on Arcos bank which you will get in about 7 days.

I presume that you have seen Com. Cook already so that it leaves me very little to say. I saw Vladimiroff on Sunday. He came to see me also. Jerus.
Vladimiroff told me how you often asked him to see to the Moer & Ritchie light. He told me that Vera is quite grown up & independent. Poor fellow he has no room yet & stays with friends. You tell me in your last letter that I must need lots of things already. Well Somethings I need badly, but of course one can always do with less under circumstances.

And especially when I still hope to go & get them myself. Besides you can not send me anything without money, and you have very little yourself, and I also have not enough to allow myself the pleasure of obtaining new things.

However you might have sent Somethings with Vladimiroff. He would have taken any thing with pleasure. I need a Soft winter hat size 6 $\frac{7}{8}$. a few half hose. one pair of warm pants & warm underclothes. 1 pair of boots size 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ (large) but it does not matter very much. I can wait yet as I am

I am also very^l pleased to hear the good news about the school reports. I can at least hope that my children will not curse me for not giving them an opportunity under the circumstances. I am sure they will appreciate it later. I shall be glad to hear how you have enjoyed your holiday, & how you are getting on with the new people in the house.

Well I think that will do at present. Yes, I have not told you any thing about my journey through the Ukraine. There is very much to say & as I am rather busy just now so will leave it for the next time. I am writing to all the Kiddies seperately. Love Sam
P. S. O.

Give my very best regards to all friends who ask after me. I am sure there must be heaps of them. As I have never made any bad friends in my life It is the same thing here in the U.S.S.R.....
